

Project Success Criteria for Webserver Marconi

The Webserver Marconi project will be considered succesful if...

1. The right buttons with Orario section functioning, news section, login section and the private area will work completely at the end of the school year.
2. The system shall be delivered in a state that is ready to be used for its intended purposes without bugs and errors.
3. Concerns raised during the test period are addressed according to the problem resolution plan contained in the Software Project Management Plan, all errors and bugs discovered before the end of the school year will be fixed if within team ability and comprension.
4. The website is easy accessible to all the users without needing a manual or technical expertise in the IT field.
5. The System is properly documented with all the necessary documentation in .pdf version.

Signatures

Team and project manager:

Project supervisor: